

DEATH IN WRECK

of an Iron-Mounted Waggoner this morning one child was killed and more than a dozen others more or less injured. Doctors and nurses were called to the scene and the injured were taken to the hospital. The wreck and traffic was delayed many hours.

WOMAN SLAYS HUSBAND

At Stillwater, this state, Mrs. Martha Bush is in jail charged with the killing of her husband. The woman says that her husband came home about four o'clock in the morning in a drunken condition and began threatening her and their two children. She and her two children fled and she was forced to kill him in defense of her children and of herself.

LABOR UNION SMOKER

A smoker and luncheon was given by the Central Labor Union at the W. O. W. Hall on Tuesday night of last week which was well attended and enjoyed by all present. The postmaster on the occasion was R. E. Ewing and a number of interesting talks were made.

their declarations of candidacy with the state election board. Democrats—William Franklin, clerk of the supreme court; Claude Weaver, former Oklahoma City postmaster; Mrs. Anna Laskey, Roy E. Stafford, James S. Ross, John H. Wright, Ed Boyle, state mine inspector; Ross N. Lillard, all of Oklahoma City, and Jep Knight, of Wynnewood, a member of the state senate. Henry M. Carr, of Pauls Valley, and W. H. Woods, of Purcell, also filed but have notified the state election board of their withdrawal from the race.

Republicans—J. W. Harrell and Amos Lincoln Wilson, both of Oklahoma City.

The state election board has ordered fifty thousand Democratic, twenty-nine thousand Republican and eight thousand Socialist ballots. The Fifth District comprises: Payne, Logan, Oklahoma, Cleveland, McClain, Garvin and Murray counties.

MORE CARS IN USE

The registration of motor driven vehicles in Oklahoma by the state highway department is fast approaching the one hundred and fifty thousand mark. The present series of tags being issued bears the serial figures of 145,000. At present the registration is running about two to three hundred a day. During the early summer the registration was as high as 1,500 to 1,600 a day. Last year's high number was 127,088.

HOPEFUL OUTLOOK

(By Dr. A. R. Lewis, State Health Commissioner.) Stray reports make me more hopeful of the influenza outlook this fall and winter.

In two days a year ago last week there were 24 deaths from the disease in Oklahoma City. At present there are only a dozen cases and none expected to die.

Dr. Sanderson of Altus tells me there are only 20 cases in his district and that none of them is so severe as to give great alarm. This seems to agree with my belief of months ago that the flu would return in lighter form.

At the same time, we must lift no precaution. This wet weather of the past week, with its tendency to bring on colds and pneumonia, should make is especially watchful. Such encouraging reports are coming in from the use of influenza vaccine that I have ordered 2,000 doses to give only to those who are absolutely unable to pay for it. Physicians who wish to treat members of poor families in which one has become a victim of influenza should make application, if the family is absolutely in distress and unable to pay.
